

During one of the darkest periods in human history, Mukesh Kapila sounded the clarion call and stood firm in the face of the ultimate crime: genocide. Read his extraordinary story – Mia Farrow

Mukesh Kapila's was a lone voice in the wilderness as the twenty-first century's first genocide unfolded in Darfur . . . this book is an eloquent testament to his efforts to blow the whistle and prevent evil from triumphing – a struggle that still continues across Sudan – John Prendergast, board member of Not On Our Watch, the charity founded by George Clooney, Brad Pitt, Matt Damon and others

In this no-holds-barred account, the former head of the United Nations in Sudan reveals for the first time the shocking depths of evil plumbed by those who designed and orchestrated 'the final solution in Darfur' and why so many good men stood by and did nothing. A veteran of humanitarian crisis and ethnic cleansing in Iraq, Rwanda, Bosnia, Afghanistan and Sierra Leone, Dr Mukesh Kapila arrived in Khartoum in March 2003 having made a promise to himself that if he were ever in a position to stop the mass-killers, they would never triumph on his watch.

Against a Tide of Evil is a strident and passionate cri de coeur. It is the deeply personal account of one man driven to extreme action by the unwillingness of those in power to stop mass murder. It explores what empowers a man to make a stand to confront global indifference and venality.

Against a Tide of Evil is published by Mainstream Publishing. ISBN 9781780576329 www.mainstreampublishing.com. It will be released on 14 March 2013 at the commencement of the year that marks the start of the 10th anniversary of the Darfur genocide and the 20th anniversary of the Rwanda genocide.
